

Injury & Illness Prevention Program

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

- Who is responsible for following safe work practices?
A. Managers
B. Upper Management
C. Employees
D. Everyone
- One way you can show responsibility in safety is to report unsafe acts or conditions. T F
- It is the employee's job to simply comply with safety rules and regulations, not to make suggestions for improvements. T F
- Failure to follow safe work practices may result in which of the following?
A. Written warning
B. Termination
C. Neither A or B
D. Both A and B
- If you have a concern regarding a hazard on the job, you should report it to your supervisor. T F
- The purpose of an accident investigation is to determine the cause of the accident and to find out who is to blame for it. T F
- Receiving regular safety trainings gives you knowledge on things that are new to you and helps remind you of the important things you already know. T F
- You can anonymously submit a safety concern by filling out a Safety Concern Card. T F

Name: _____

Site: _____