

Lockout/Tagout

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

- | | | |
|--|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. Anyone working with a piece of equipment or machinery can lock it out if it is in need of repair. | T | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 2. Turning off the power switch and placing a lock on the energy source removes all the energy from powered equipment or machinery. | T | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 3. Before lockout/tagout is applied, all workers in the affected area must be notified. | <input checked="" type="radio"/> | F |
| 4. If you are handy with repairs, it's OK to attempt to fix electrical equipment as long as you are very careful and have experience doing so. | T | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 5. Any employee can remove a lock if they believe that the equipment or machinery has been repaired and is ready to be opened. | T | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 6. Affected employees can help prevent injuries by reporting damaged equipment to their manager or supervisor. | <input checked="" type="radio"/> | F |
| 7. This safety training DOES NOT qualify you to be an Authorized Employee. | <input checked="" type="radio"/> | F |

Name: _____

Site: _____